

Cardiac Conditions in OBSTETRIC CARE

WHAT?

Improve care of patients with cardiac conditions

HOW?

By increasing screening and appropriate referrals for at least 90% of all birthing people

WHY?

Cardiac conditions are the leading cause of pregnancy related deaths

WHERE?

All participating hospitals' Pregnancy Care, Urgent Care, and Emergency Care settings

WHO?

Pregnant or postpartum patients who are at risk for or have cardiac disease requiring specialized MFM or cardiology care

WHEN?

Now through June 2026

BONUS?

Reduction in NTSV C-section and Preterm delivery rates by 10%

TIPQC
Tennessee Initiative for Perinatal Quality Care

Join the TIPQC QI Initiative and promote heart health for all.

Nothing contained in this infographic constitutes Medical or other Professional Advice, nor does it represent an endorsement of any treatment.